

Outline for CMS Majors Pursuing a Degree at Night

Students attending WSU in the evenings can finish their major requirements for an Undergraduate Degree in Communication Studies within 2 ½ years. The Communication Studies degree has the following requirements. Noted next to each class is when it is offered as a night section.

COM 1010 (OC) Oral Communication: Basic Speech (3 credits): Offered every term at night

COM 2000 Introduction to Communication Studies (3 credits): Offered every Fall at night

COM 2110 (CT) Argumentation and Debate (3 credits): Offered every term at night

COM 3400 (WI) Theories of Communication (3 credits): Offered every Fall/Winter at night

COM 4190 Rhetorical Criticism (3 credits) or COM 4210 Intro. to Research Methods in Comm/PR (3 credits): 4210 is offered every Winter at Macomb at night; A method class will be offered every Fall at night, rotating between 4190 and 4210

COM 5900 Senior Project in Communication Studies (3 credits): Offered every Fall at night

2, COM 2XXX/3XXX classes: -COM 3170 (Macomb at night in Winter); COM 3250 is offered every Winter at night; COM 3300 is offered every term at night

2, COM 4XXX classes: One of the two courses offered every Fall and Winter will be night

2, COM 5XXX classes: One of the two courses offered every Fall and Winter will be at night (NOTE: 5130, one of the possible 5XXX classes, is offered every Spring at night on main campus, and every Fall at night at Macomb)

SAMPLE PLAN OF WORK

Fall Year 1

COM 1010 Oral Communication: Basic Speech

COM 2000 Introduction to Communication Studies

Winter Year 1

COM 3250 Introduction to Organizational Communication

COM 3400 Theories of Communication

Spring/Summer Year 1

COM 3300 Business and Professional Communication

Fall Year 2

COM 4190/4210 Rhetorical Criticism/Introduction to Research Methods in Communication/PR

COM 2110 Argumentation and Debate

Winter Year 2

COM 4xxx

COM 5xxx

Spring/Summer Year 2

COM 5130 (as one possible COM 5xxx option – needs COM 4210 as pre-req)

Fall Year 3

COM 4xxx

COM 5900

(COM 5xxx if student didn't complete COM 5130 in the Spring/Summer)