

Emphasis in Communication Education (Pedagogy)

This emphasis is intended for students preparing to teach speech communication classes in the secondary schools.

Required courses:

- COM 7000: Introduction to M.A. Studies in Communication (3 credits)
- COM 5030: (EI) Communication Ethics (3 credits)
- COM 6060: Teaching Communication at the Secondary Level (3 credits)
- COM 6070: Directing Forensics (3 credits)
- COM 7810: Seminar in Communication Education (3 credits)

Plan C: elective classes sufficient to bring the total credit hours to total 35-48.

Acknowledgment of M.A. Degree Handbook Policies and Procedures

I have read the Department of Communication Master of Arts Handbook and familiarized myself with the policies and procedures governing the degree program I am pursuing. I also understand that I must familiarize myself with the policies, procedures, and directives from the Graduate School as detailed in the Graduate Bulletin.

I understand that deviations from the Department of Communication or Graduate School policies and procedures may interfere with reasonable and normal academic progress and, in extreme circumstances, may result in my dismissal from the program. I further understand that I am to maintain regular contact with my academic advisor so that I may complete my degree in a timely manner.

Student's Name (Please Print):

Signature and date:

Please sign and return this form to the Graduate Secretary of the Department of Communication, 585 Manoogian Hall, with your Plan of Work. The Plan of Work is to be completed in consultation with your academic advisor and must be filed by the completion of twelve credit hours of academic study.

For office use only:

Received by and date: