

DOW JONES HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM WORKSHOP

Free one week program to develop writing and journalism skills, for metro-Detroit students, grades 9 - 12
Monday, June 20 - Friday, June 24 2011, from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.
With an awards brunch on Saturday, June 25th

Important: The student journalist’s level of participation on Mon. will determine ability to continue in the program.

Application

Name _____

Email _____ Cell _____

Parent/Guardian _____ Phone _____

High School _____ Graduation year: _____

Date of Birth _____ Gender _____

PLEASE ONLY APPLY IF
YOU CAN PARTICIPATE
MON. THROUGH FRI.

What are your best subjects? _____

Do you have any journalistic experience? If yes, detail: _____

What are your college / career goals? _____

What are some of your interests? _____

Please attach typed writings:

1. This application.
2. 500 word essay: Why I am interested in the field of journalism, in attending the WSU Dow Jones High School Journalism Workshop and why I believe diversity in the media is important in an increasingly diverse society.
3. Writing sample: School newspaper, broadcast script or class assignment.
4. List of school and community activities and work experience.
5. Letter from a teacher who will attest to your seriousness as a student.

Please return these application materials by June 10th to:

Alicia Nails, Director, WSU Journalism Institute for Media Diversity
585 Manoogian Hall, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48201
Email to: Emmy40@aol.com For questions: 313/ 577.6304