Petition to Repeat a Graduate Course

Graduate students are allowed to repeat a graduate course in which they receive a grade of B- or lower. No more than two graduate courses may be repeated during a student’s study at Wayne State University. All approvals must be obtained before registration for the course to be repeated takes place. The original grade for the course will remain on student transcripts, but only the grade received in repetition of the course will be used in computation of the grade point average. Students do not receive University financial aid for repetition of courses.
